

Project : A-Kon Video Programming is proud to present its third annual

CLASSIC ANIME FESTIVAL

Drop in, for half an hour or a whole night, and enjoy the ride as we show golden oldies you wish you'd seen long ago, or will love to see again, as well as more obscure pieces you'll wonder why you haven't seen before, and some genuine weirdness you won't believe even while you're seeing it.

- 10 PM Kimagure Orange Road TV episodes 1 & 2
Kyosuke, meet Madoka — Hikaru, meet Kyosuke — nobody doesn't love KOR, and this is how it starts, straw hat, 99½ steps, and all
- 11 PM Sailor Moon SuperS, The Movie
Chibi-Usa meets the Pied Piper? Our Heroines save the world from a Black Hole of Dreams? whatever's going on, it's sure snazzy-looking
- Midnight The Ultimate Teacher
an utterly bizarre, uproariously hilarious take on Japanese high-school life
- 1 AM Macross Special
the very beginning of one of the most famous anime sagas (a condensation of the first two television episodes)
- 2 AM Blue Sonnet episode 1 who is the mysterious "Sonnet"? what is the "Red Fang"? why can't cyborgs and psychics get along?
- 2.30 AM Future Boy Conan episode 1
what comes after the the end of the world? plenty of good fishing, apparently... (directed by Hayao Miyazaki)
- 3 AM Detonator Orgun episode 2
pitiless alien destroyers are headed for Earth — can sentient mecha and teen angst save us? (directed by Masami Obari, for you Super Robot Wars fans)
- 4 AM Space Ace episode 1 the very epitome of "old-school", a black & white kids' TV anime from 1965
- 4.30 AM Project A-Ko
no A-Kon would be complete without this classic

Japanese language, English subtitles / Japanese language only

The schedule shown is approximate, and will be padded out with a variety of short pieces, including the Ghibli music video On Your Mark, and selected segments from Robot Carnival.

10 PM SATURDAY — 6 AM SUNDAY
VIDEO ROOM 3